

Young Girl at Ghetto Terezin: 1941-1944 Drawings by Helga Weissová Hošková

Exhibition contents:

10 framed color reproductions of drawings by Helga Weissová Hošková, four 22" x 29," six 15" x 12," three text panels (two @ 21" x 23" and one @ 22" x 29").

Additional materials: Press materials (including high resolution images and the template of a news release), and final art for a variety of collateral materials will be provided.

Size: Approximately 30 linear feet.

Security: Interior exhibit space required.

Rental Fee/Booking Period: $500 for 1-week block or $200 per day. Borrower pays for roundtrip shipping.

Insurance: Covered by the Museum of Jewish Heritage—A Living Memorial to the Holocaust.

Prior venues include:

Regis College, Weston, MA (1996)

J.C.C. on the Palisades, Tenafly, NJ (1999)

Center for the Study of Jewish Life at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ (2000)

Albany Pro Musica, Albany, NY (2007)

Institute for Holocaust Education, Omaha, NB (2009)

Burlington City Arts, Burlington, VT (May 2010)

For further information, please contact:

Senior Registrar/Manager of Traveling Exhibitions

eblumenfeld@mjhny.org

646.437.4351