Zachor: A Kit for Students and Teachers to Study and Memorialize the Holocaust

Each year, the Museum's Education Department receives requests from teachers for support in planning meaningful Holocaust commemoration ceremonies at their schools. The Zachor Kit, developed in response to these requests, includes detailed instructions about planning a ceremony as well as various resources for use during the event, including a range of options so that a teacher may select those parts that are most relevant to their school's specific needs. The kit includes candles, matches, and a 37 pp. guidebook.
